BREAKING NEWS: URGENT -- Strong 6.5-magnitude earthquake strikes off New Zealand

-, 16.11.2014, 23:53 Time

USPA News - A strong 6.5-magnitude earthquake struck off the coast of New Zealand's North Island on Monday morning, seismologists and officials said, adding that there was no threat of a tsunami. Information about possible damage or casualties was not yet available.

The 6.5-magnitude earthquake at 11:33 a.m. local time (2233 GMT Sunday) was centered about 155 kilometers (96 miles) east of Te Araroa, a township on the eastern coast of New Zealand's North Island. It struck about 31 kilometers (19.2 miles) below the seabed, making it a shallow earthquake, according to the country's seismological agency. The Pacific Tsunami Warning Center, which measured the quake at a magnitude of 6.7, said there was no threat of a tsunami.
